AMBASSADOR GUTHRIE THE GUEST OF HONOR Diplomat And His Family Are Enroute to The Far East

Sons And Daughters of Revolution Hosts to Diplomat

Ambassador and Mrs. George W. Guthrie, accompanied by Miss Guthrie, arrived in Honolulu in the Mongolia this morning and are being entertained during the day by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, the local Japanese consul, the Japan Society of Hawaii, and L. L. McCandless.

The chief event in the entertainment line was the luncheon at the Young Hotel at 12:45 this afternoon, at which about 70 per sons sat down around the banquet board. Preceding the luncheon a reception was held in the parlors of the Young, during which Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie met a large delegation of the prominent residents of Honolulu.

At the luncheon, besides the guests of honor, at the head of the table were Perley L. Horne and Mrs. Horne, General and Mrs. Frederick Funston, Admiral C. B. T. Moore, Governor Frear, the Japanese consul and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder, while the Japanese society of Hawaii was represented by its president, Prof. M. M. Scott, accompanied by Mrs. Scott and A. K. Ozawa.

Before the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, representatives of the army and navy, and members of the local Japanese colony, Mr. Guthrie made what will probably be his last speech on American soil for some time to come. In well turned phrases Ambassador Guthrie expressed his appreciation of the hearty welcome which Hawaii had given him and the members of his family, showed a keen interest in the land itself, and touched just enough on international politics to show his firm belief in the continuance of friendly relations between the two great nations which lie on opposite sides of the broad Pacific.

The speaker touched first on the pleasure that such a hearty welcome from the last outpost of the United States afforded the traveler to foreign lands. Then, taking up the thread of his discourse, he said that it was appropriate in a gathering composed principally of men and women whose ancestors helped to lay the foundations of a great and free nation, that the teachings and ideals for which the society stood should be carefully noted, with reference to the effect on the policy of the nation today.

George W. Guthrie, Ambassador from the United States to Japan, who is a visitor in Honolulu today.

Luncheon at Young And Tour of City Taken by Visitors

"Our forefathers laid the foundations of our government deep and strong," said the speaker. "We know if we have read the teachings of our forefathers, that the true end of all just governments is to produce an environment in which the individual can grow and develop freely into that which is best in manhood and womanhood. I believe on the mission on which I go, there is in the heart of the American nation a desire that the blessings of peace should prevail over the great Pacific. We throw around our borders our army and navy, not to make war, but that we may live in peace."

Ambassador Guthrie paid high tribute to the national courtesy of the people to whom he is going, and expressed his thanks for the entertainment which the representatives of Japan had given him during his brief stay in Honolulu.

At the conclusion of Ambassador Guthrie's talk, Prof. Horne again thanked him and wished him aloha, on behalf of united Hawaii. Standing, the guests then pledged a toast to the ambassador, and the success of his mission.

During the luncheon the Hawaiian band played patriotic airs, the music from Bishop square floating through the city.

HONOLULANS IN MEXICAN TOWN ARE IMPERILLED

Gunboat Ordered to Frontera, Where Capt. and Mrs. E. S. Johnson Are Now Living

Captain and Mrs. E. S. Johnson, former residents of Honolulu, are believed to be in dire peril at Frontera, state of Tabasco, Mexico. Captain Johnson is head of the Standard American Dredging Company's operations at Frontera, having gone there from Honolulu a year ago. The Standard American company has a two-million dollar contract for dredging and filling in and around Frontera, taken under the Madero government.

This afternoon the San Francisco office of the Associated Press cabled the Star-Bulletin as follows:

"Gunboat Wheeler ordered to leave Key West to protect Americans at Frontera, Tabasco state."

Capt. and Mrs. Johnson and the corps of white employees of the dredging company are the only Americans at Frontera, according to advices from them. Local friends have received letters within the past few weeks stating that the revolutionary situation was causing them much uneasiness.

REPUBLICANS ON LOOKOUT FOR A NEW CHAIRMAN

Republican circles yesterday and today were stirred by the report that Chairman Bertram von Damm and Secretary John H. Wise of the Republican county committee have about made up their minds to resign their positions, and simultaneously active party men began canvassing the situation for possible successors to the two officials.

Chairman von Damm says that until he is convinced that it is for the good of the party that he resign, and until a successor is available who can give satisfaction, he will "stick to it."

John Hughes to Build Hawaii's Fair Building

John Hughes, superintendent of Hawaii's building at the Panama Pacific Exposition of 1915.

DR. WILCOX HEADS COM- MITTEE OF HORTICUL- TURE AND AGRI- CULTURE

Meeting for the first time since the return of the chairman from his trip to San Francisco in the interests of the organization, the members of the Hawaii fair commission, sitting in session at ten o'clock in the rooms of the promotion committee, this morning named John Hughes, of the Oahu Railroad and Land Company, as building superintendent for the Hawaiian building at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915. Those members of the commission present at the meeting were H. P. Wood, chairman; A. P. Taylor, secretary; John Hughes, John Wise and C. E. Wright. During his visit to the mainland, the chairman of the commission had viewed the heads of the Hawaiian and made complete arrangements for the location and completion of Hawaii's building, and the appointment of Mr. Hughes, as well as the com-

GIRLS BURN IN FACTORY FIRE TRAPPED, MANY LEAP TO DEATH

Binghamton, N. Y., Scene of Horror Rivaling Triangle Fire of Metropolis—All Is Over in Twenty Minutes

[Associated Press Cable]
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 22.—A fire almost approaching in horror that of the Triangle Shirtwaist Company of New York last year, caused the death of between twenty and thirty girl employees of an overall factory here.

The Freeman Overall Factory, a four-story brick structure with wooden floors and supports caught fire and was badly damaged in a fierce blaze that lasted but twenty minutes. More than a score of girls were burned to death and the number may reach thirty. Fifty more were injured when, cut off from escape by the stairs and elevator, they jumped from windows to the ground below.

The payrolls were burned and it was found impossible to get an immediate accurate count of the victims.

Japan Balks at Mexico's Plan

Legation at Mexico City Notifies Huerta Japanese Cannot Join in Anti-American Demonstration of Any Kind

[Associated Press Cable]
MEXICO CITY, Mex., July 22.—The Japanese legation has notified General Huerta that it cannot join in any anti-American demonstration and has made it plain that Japan will not give any sympathy in plans to foment America.

Think Yuan Shih-Kai Will Win

[Associated Press Cable]
HONGKONG, China, July 22.—Leading merchants of this city declare that President Yuan Shih-Kai will emerge victorious from the present revolution. They say that in addition to trained military forces, he has adequate funds to carry the campaign forward indefinitely, so that he has the support of the powers.

PEKING, China, July 22.—Martial law has been proclaimed by the authorities in Kiangsu and Kiangsi provinces. Charge d'Affaires Williams has requested the marines of the Pacific squadron to protect Americans in the southern provinces.

CANTON, China, July 22.—As a result of the revolution that is setting the southern province aflame, and here in this section is almost completely paralyzed. Thousands are fleeing. The general feeling in Chinese centers seems to be that Gen. Yuan Shih-Kai and his trained army will defeat the revolutionists.

Hayden Will Not Prosecute

[Associated Press Cable]
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Thomas Hayden, special prosecutor of the federal department of justice, whose appointment as associate counsel in the Diggs-Caminetti cases was criticized because Hayden is a close friend of the Caminetti family, has resigned. McReynolds says that a federal district attorney for San Francisco has not yet been chosen.

Seattle Riot Leads to Death

[Associated Press Cable]
SEATTLE, Wash., July 22.—Sergeant A. E. Wallace of the Coast Artillery, who was stabbed in the anti-W. W. riot here last Thursday night, died today of septicemia. Public feeling is still running high and the city is being patrolled by special police detachments.

Russia Frowns on Tolstoi

[Associated Press Cable]
ST. PETERSBURG, Russia, July 22.—The Holy Synod has ordered Tolstoi's posthumous works destroyed, and Czar Nicholas has approved the order. The protests of the family of the great writer have proved unavailing.

Papal Guard is Disarmed

[Associated Press Cable]
ROME, Italy, July 22.—The Swiss papal guards, who struck yesterday asking lighter hours and the right to frequent saloons and visiting graveyards against Capt. Glassmon, their commander, have been disarmed pending a trial.

Negro Convicts Burned

NEW ORLEANS, Louisiana, July 22.—Thirty-five negro convicts were incinerated today when an antiquated cage at the prison farm burned and they could not be reached in time for release.

Turkey Not in Adrianople

[Associated Press Cable]
SOFIA, Bulgaria, July 22.—It is reported that the statement that Turkey has occupied Adrianople has been disproved, but that the occupation is expected soon.

LIVE WIRE TALKS AT AD CLUB TOMORROW

Two live wire talks are on the list for the live wire talks at the Honolulu Ad Club at the club tomorrow noon. Mr. Heiser, who recently came in contact with live clubs and ad club men of the northwest, will give a talk on his experience. He is an enthusiastic on the advertising club movement. The second speaker will give a local interest to the ad club. Mr. L. A. Thurston, general manager of the Hilo railway, will give a talk on what Hilo is doing towards advertising the many attractions of the big island. Thurston's slogan is "See Hawaii First." A full house is expected.

Sheriff William Jarrett has written Acting Sheriff Ross under date of July 12th that he was about to depart from Vancouver accompanied by Bernard, alleged to have appropriated a sum of money belonging to Lycurgus, the caterer. Sheriff Jarrett planned to proceed to Seattle, and there take steamer for San Francisco and Honolulu. It is possible that the officer with his prisoner may connect with the Matson Navigation company's Lurline to arrive here in July 23. Bernard is said to have waived extradition proceedings.

PROGRESSIVES PLAN DINNER TO BOOM NEW PARTY

Anniversary of First Conven- tion Date, Aug. 5, Will Bring Local Bull Moosers Together

Hawaii Bull Moosers will fire the first gun of a new party campaign in Hawaii at a dinner to be held on the evening of August 5. Detailed arrangements for the affair are still to be made, but the comparatively few Progressives in Honolulu are already enthusiastically booming the idea.

It will be an anniversary dinner. The party was born on August 5, 1912, at the Progressive convention in Chicago. At least, that is the official date of its birth, though some political historians have contended that the interesting event took place when the Roosevelt forces withdrew from the Republican convention some weeks earlier.

Progressives all over the United States will meet on August 5 to celebrate the anniversary and the Hawaii Bull Moosers will celebrate also.

A. L. C. Atkinson, national committeeman of the party for Hawaii, said this morning that no arrangements for the dinner have yet been made and that there is no way of determining how many will be present. "The party is growing fast," he said, "and anyone who believes in Progressive principles or who wishes to learn more about the party is welcome. In fact, anyone is welcome who will come and sit with us. It will be a dollar dinner."

Local Bull Moosers, it has been known for some time, are preparing to put a complete ticket in the field at the next election. They expect to be heard from in politics.

Incidentally, Hawaii Progressives have received an anonymous post-card dated at Buffalo, New York, and bearing on the blank side merely this: "Governor Stubbs of Kansas, Progressive candidate for president, 1916."

STANFORD TO PLAY ST. LOUIS AND THE PORTUGUESE TEAM

The Stanford baseball team will play two more games in Honolulu. Saturday the collegians will go up against the St. Louis team at Mollhill, for the third time. Sunday next the team will play the Portuguese Athletic Club at Athletic Park. This program was decided on last night.

The Stanford team leaves tomorrow on the Mauna Kea for a flying trip to the volcano. The players will return Saturday morning.

City Engineer Given Power to Name Employees

Legal Opinion Stops Mayor from Appointing Successor to J. J. Smiddy

Emphatic in his statement as to what official falls the right to appoint the successor of Road Supervisor J. J. Smiddy, whose resignation takes effect the last of this month, P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney, presented Mayor Joseph J. Fern with a lengthy legal opinion today, which meets with the displeasure of the city's chief executive.

In his opinion Attorney Weaver strongly affirms that the mayor has not the legal right to appoint an assistant of the city and county engineer, but that the latter official, by virtue of an ordinance passed by the supervisors, has the authority to name the successor of Smiddy.

So long as this ordinance is on the books, says the deputy city and county attorney, the mayor will be obliged to keep his hands off the appointments of City and County Engineer Whitehouse's assistants, and his appointive power, restored to him by the last legislature must be confined to such cases "where election or appointment is not otherwise provided for by this charter or by law."

Mayor Fern is displeased with the opinion, and he has made no attempt to conceal his displeasure. That he will ignore it, however, may be strongly doubted. Intimations he made this afternoon bear strongly on the prediction that he will seek to change the ordinance giving the city and county engineer the power to appoint his assistants to be repealed, and in that way vest the appointive power over the position of the road supervisor with himself.

That the opinion of Mr. Weaver is the forerunner of more city and county official squabbles also seems to be clear. Mayor Fern discussed the opinion with Supervisor McClellan this afternoon, and though he announced no conclusion as to what he plans to do, he expressed himself in favor of repealing the ordinance, which would mean another bone of contention for the supervisors and city and county officials generally.

Mayor Fern did not wish to give out the opinion and justified his reluctance of making it public by stating that he had called for it for his own personal wish, desiring to be forewarned in case he named the successor of Smiddy.

"I do not wish any trouble over this," he said, "I only asked for it for my personal information, and give it to me."

MORTARS AT KAMEHAMEHA PROOF-FIRED THIS A. M.

The 12-inch mortars at Fort Kamehameha were proof-fired today by Captain B. O. Mahaffey, department ordnance officer. One of these mortars was fired a couple of weeks ago by Col. C. W. Waller, formerly of the ordnance staff, but the remaining three mortars in the pit were not ready to be proof-fired at that time, and were left until today for the final test. Colonel Rafferty, commanding the coast defenses of Oahu, witnessed the firing this morning.

UNDESIRABLE IMMIGRANTS TO BE RETURNED

J. K. Brown Will Accompany Delegation as Far as Hongkong, China

More than a score of Spanish immigrants, brought here on the Ascot, are to be deported. They will be put on the liner Mongolia tomorrow, and, under the supervision of J. K. Brown, of the custom house, taken as far as Hongkong, where arrangements will be made for their return to Spain.

When the Ascot arrived in port here a few weeks ago, bringing the Spanish immigrants, about a score were detained by the federal immigration officials, but for a time it was believed they would be released. It has now been established that they are suffering from trachoma, the victims of which disease are forbidden entrance into the United States.

When the deported immigrants arrive in Hongkong, Mr. Brown will leave them upon seeing them safely aboard a ship for Spain. The agent of the territorial immigration department, which department chartered the Ascot to bring the emigrants here, in Spain, will see that the deported persons reach their homes. Brown has been given a leave of absence.

SEE MORE POSSIBILITY OF OUTSIDER FOR PLACE

Opponents of L. E. Pinkham's candidacy for the governorship have been busily engaged for the past few days in digging into Pinkham's local record and particularly the circumstances surrounding the now-famous letter he wrote as president of the board of health which stirred up Japanese official circles here. According to dispatches from Washington, this is being used against him there by Senator John Sharp Williams, who is backing E. M. Watson for the position.

Pinkham's candidacy is still not taken seriously by the majority of those interested in the race for the governorship.

A good many comments were made today on the possibility of President Wilson growing tired of the Hawaii situation and asking Congress to amend the organic act so that he may nominate a mainland for the position.

HORNER TO MANAGE PINEAPPLE CONCERN

The Kapaa pineapple cannery and plantation on Kauai, which were promoted last year by the president of the Canneries Company of California, who came here to investigate the pineapple situation, have for superintendent Albert Horner, formerly manager of Kukui sugar plantation. Plans for operating the concern are not yet matured, but will be at an early date. The Kapaa homesteaders will plant pine for the factory, in addition to the company's own planting.

MODERATE PROTECTIVE DUTY NOW APPEARS AS POSSIBILITY

By C. S. ALBERT
[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Republican senators have taken a new lease on hope and believe they will be able to accomplish some results in the direction of imposing a moderate protective duty on sugar. The same optimism extends to wool and other features of the Underwood-Simmons bill. This conclusion was reached several days after the Democratic caucus completed its work, and after the measure had been favorably reported from the finance committee.

Senator Smoot made a careful investigation of the situation and subsequently gave out an interview wherein he expressed the firm belief that enough of the dissatisfied Democrats would cooperate with the Republicans to place a duty on sugar and wool. He was positive this could be done in the senate and the bill sent back to the house for concurrence in the various amendments added. He was not sure that the house would not later force the senate to recede from its position and have sugar and wool on the free list. This would follow the conference on the disputed items.

In any event, more encouragement is extended by Republican senators now than at any previous time since the ways and means committee issued its pronouncement in favor of free sugar and wool. It may mean no specific results in the end but it presages a good fight, with a chance of winning, and that is better than the hopeless condition heretofore prevailing.

EASTERN AD MAN ON PLAY TRIP TO JAPAN

A live wire in the advertising and publishing field, and identified with the business along the east coast of the United States for years, Robert Frothingham, a former business manager and advertising expert connected with Life, Everybody's and the several Buttrick publications, is a visitor at Honolulu pending the stay of the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia at the port. Mr. Frothingham, accompanied by Mrs. Frothingham, is on a tour of the world.

"I have been so completely tied down by my duties with the several publishing concerns that I have never taken time for a real play," he ad-

BANANA CLAIMS IN, SETTLEMENT PROMISED SOON

Banana claimants asking damages for the destruction of their banana trees, which were cut down by order of the board of health, filed into the senate chamber this morning until every available seat was taken and the rear of the room crowded with persons of several nationalities.

It was the occasion of the meeting of the banana claims commission following the filing of the last of the claims. In the course of the meeting Chairman William T. Rawlins announced that the claims of the Hawaiians would be taken up first, being the largest in number and that
